

Call for Instructors.

The Australian College of Emergency Nursing are currently looking for instructors for their popular TNCC and ENPC courses.

Applicants must:

- Have current certification for the appropriate course (ie must have undertaken and passed the current version of each course within the last 4 years).
- Be prepared to undertake a two stage instructor course
 - Part 1: (6th or 7th February in Auckland 2010) An instructor course during which you will be required to obtain at least 90 % in the ENPC/ TNCC course.
 - Part B: A mentored weekend where you will deliver a section of the course under the direct supervision of your mentor.
- Be member of either ACEN or the College of Emergency Nurses New Zealand
- Should have some experience in group teaching
- The cost is $500 AUD.

If you would like to be considered for this challenging programme please forward;

- An expression of interest
- A current CV
- Two letters of reference from people who, can comment on your knowledge, skills and ability to teach.

To Liz Cloughessy at (admin@acen.com.au)

For further information contact Beccy Fenn @ beccyfenn@yahoo.co.nz